

RE: VERZIO FILM SERIES

February - April 2014
OSA ARCHIVUM
Budapest V, Arany János u. 32.
ADMISSION FREE

OSA Archivum and Verzio Film Festival present 6 of the most popular documentaries of the 10th Verzio International Human Rights Documentary Film Festival. Do not miss this rare opportunity to watch some of the best documentary features of 2013 for FREE!

Films are screened in original language with English subtitles.

www.osaarchivum.org / www.verzio.org

Wednesday, 26 February, 6 pm

First Cousin Once Removed

Alan Berliner / USA / 2012 / 78'

An intimate portrait of Edwin Honig's journey through the ravages of memory loss and Alzheimer's disease.

Best Documentary, IDFA 2012

Wednesday, 5 March, 6 pm

The Act of Killing

Joshua Oppenheimer / 2012 / Denmark / 115'

Indonesian death squad leaders make a film about their killings. They write the script and play themselves. And also play their victims.

Academy Award nomination

Wednesday, 12 March, 6 pm

In the Shadow of the Sun

Harry Freeland / UK / 2012 / 84'

What happens to albino people in a country where many share the old superstition that their body parts bring wealth and good fortune?

Verzio 10 FF Audience Award

Wednesday, 19 March, 6 pm

Rent a Family INC.

Kaspar Astrup Schröder / 2012 / Denmark / 52'

Need a spouse, husband, or friend? Find out how to rent a family member, and how to run a promising business.

Wednesday, 26 March, 6 pm

Camp 14

Marc Wiese / 2012 / Germany / 104'

Shin Dong-hyuk's dramatic escape from a North Korean labor camp launches him into an outside world he has never known.

Wednesday, 2 April, 6 pm

A World Not Ours

Mahdi Fleifel / Lebanon & UK / 2012 / 93'

Twenty years of summer holidays in a refugee camp – strong family ties and growing despair.

